Global Markets, Inc., et al.

Dear Mr. Sonn:

Enclosed please find the decision reached by the arbitrator(s) in the above-referenced matter.

Responsibility to Pay Monetary Award

FINRA rules provide that all monetary awards shall be paid within 30 days of receipt unless a motion to vacate has been filed with a court of competent jurisdiction. An award shall bear interest from the date of the award:

- If not paid within 30 days of receipt;
- If the award is the subject of a motion to vacate which is denied; or
- As specified by the panel in the award.

Interest shall be assessed at the legal rate, if any, then prevailing in the state where the award was rendered, or at a rate set by the arbitrator(s).

Expedited Suspension Proceedings for Non-Payment of Awards

Article VI, Section 3 of the FINRA By-Laws and FINRA Rule 9554 permit FINRA to suspend or cancel the registration of any firm or associated person that fails to comply with a FINRA arbitration award.

Firms are required to notify FINRA in writing within 30 days of receipt of an award that they or their associated persons have paid or otherwise complied with the award, or to identify a valid basis for non-payment. We also request that prevailing claimants notify us in writing when their awards have not been paid within 30 days of receipt of the award.

Written notification concerning award compliance or lack thereof should be directed to:

Right to File Motion to Vacate Award

FINRA rules provide that, unless the applicable law directs otherwise, all awards rendered are final and are not subject to review or appeal. Accordingly, FINRA has no authority to vacate this award. Any party wishing to challenge the award must make a motion to vacate the award in a federal or state court of appropriate jurisdiction pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 10, or applicable state statute. There are limited grounds for vacating an arbitration award, and a party must bring a motion to vacate within the time period specified by the applicable statute. If you are not represented by counsel and wish to challenge the award, we urge you to seek legal advice regarding any rights or remedies available to you.

Forum Fees

You will receive under separate cover an invoice that reflects the fees assessed and any outstanding balance or refund due. Fees are due and payable to FINRA Dispute Resolution upon receipt of the invoice and should be sent to the address specified on the invoice. Any applicable refunds will also be sent under separate cover approximately 45 days after the case closes. All questions regarding payment of fees and refunds should be directed to FINRA Finance at (240) 386-5910.

Arbitrator Evaluation

FINRA encourages parties to complete Arbitrator Evaluation Forms at the conclusion of every case. We will utilize your comments in our ongoing efforts to evaluate and improve the services our forum provides. #### Party Submissions to Arbitrators After a Case Closes FINRA rules provide that parties may not submit documents to arbitrators in cases that have been closed except under the following limited circumstances: 1) as ordered by a court; 2) at the request of any party within 10 days of service of an award, for typographical or computational errors, or mistakes in the description of any person or property referred to in the award; or 3) if all parties agree and submit documents within 10 days of service of an award. Any documents, if submitted, must be sent through FINRA.

CASE SUMMARY

Claimants asserted the following causes of action: breach of fiduciary duty, negligence, negligent supervision, fraud by omission, misrepresentation and breach of contract. The causes of action relate to Claimants' investments in securities, including two promissory notes, used to finance real estate developments known as Moorings at Carrabelle, Inc., Moorings Development, Inc. and Pirates Cove Marina, LLC.

Unless specifically admitted in its Answer, Respondent CGMI denied the allegations made in the Statement of Claim, as amended, and asserted various affirmative defenses.

RELIEF REQUESTED

In the Statement of Claim, as amended, Claimants requested compensatory damages of approximately $1,000,000.00, punitive damages, interest, costs and such other and further relief the Panel deemed just and proper.

At the close of the hearing, Claimants requested compensatory damages of $1,070,000.00 plus a loan guarantee of $12,000,000.00.

Respondent CGMI requested that the Statement of Claim, as amended, be denied in its entirety with prejudice, costs, a recommendation that this matter be expunged from the Central Registration Depository ("CRD") records of Respondent King and such other relief that the Panel deemed fair and equitable.

OTHER ISSUES CONSIDERED AND DECIDED

The Arbitrators acknowledge that they have each read the pleadings and other materials filed by the parties.

Respondent King did not file with FINRA Dispute Resolution a properly executed Submission Agreement but is required to submit to arbitration pursuant to the Code of Arbitration Procedure ("Code") and is bound by the determination of the Panel on all issues submitted.

On or about December 16, 2010, Claimants filed an Amended Statement of Claim which, among other things, withdrew Claimants' claims against Respondent King, without prejudice.

In the Motion to Dismiss, Respondent CGMI asserted, among other things, the following: Claimants have already released Respondent CGMI from the claims at issue in this case; and to the extent that Claimants' claims were not released, the claims must still be dismissed because Respondent CGMI was not associated with Claimants' accounts. In their Opposition to the Motion to Dismiss, Claimants asserted, among other things, the following: the Motion to Dismiss is legally unsupported; the claims that Respondent CGMI attempts to have dismissed accrued two years after the release was executed; and the release only refers to claims that accrued as of the date of the release. On or about September 9, 2011, the Panel denied Respondent CGMI's Motion to Dismiss.

In the Agreed Motion to Amend, Claimants requested leave to file a Second Amended Statement of Claim for the purpose of adding the Nasirdin H. Madhany Revocable Trust as a Claimant. On or about January 6, 2013, the Panel granted Claimants' Agreed Motion to Amend.

During the evidentiary hearing, Respondent King orally renewed his request for expungement.

The parties have agreed that the Award in this matter may be executed in counterpart copies or that a handwritten, signed Award may be entered.

AWARD

After considering the pleadings, the testimony and evidence presented at the recorded in-person hearing, and the post-hearing submissions (if any), the Panel has decided in full and final resolution of the issues submitted for determination as follows:

1. Respondent CGMI is liable for breach of fiduciary duty as financial advisor to Claimants as well as negligent supervision and shall pay Claimants compensatory damages in the following amounts:
  - a. $400,000.00 for Claimants' investment in Pirates Cove; and
  - b. $647,334.00 for Claimants' investment in the Moorings.
2. The Panel determined that Claimants and other investors signed a loan guarantee in an effort to protect their investment in the Moorings in the amount of $12,000,000.00. As a result of said guarantee, a judgment was entered against Claimants and the other investors, jointly and severally, on October 18, 2012, in the amount of $10,031,220.25, in the case styled Wachovia Bank, N.A. v. Robert C. Brooks et al.; Circuit Court, Second Judicial Circuit, Leon County, Florida; Case No.

2009-CA-3786. Evidence was introduced at the hearing which indicated that Claimants had attempted to settle their liability on said judgment for the sum of $2,100,000.00. However, no evidence was introduced to indicate whether said offer was accepted and if so, whether Claimants were given a full Release and Satisfaction from said judgment.

3. It is the intent of this Panel that Respondent CGMI be held liable for and shall pay to Claimants the damages suffered by Claimants arising from said judgment, except for costs, interest and attorney fees. Therefore, Respondent CGMI is liable for and shall pay Claimants $2,100,000.00 and any additional monies, if any, that they have expended or have agreed to pay to settle their liability under said judgment. Respondent CGMI shall indemnify and hold Claimants harmless for any additional damages not to exceed $10,031,220.25, that exist or may arise, for which Claimants could be held liable, as a result of said judgment. Said indemnity shall continue until or unless said judgment is satisfied as against Claimants and a Release and Satisfaction of Judgment is filed on their behalf.
4. Respondent CGMI is liable and shall pay Claimants costs in the sum of $37,967.73.
5. Respondent King's request for expungement is denied.
6. Any and all claims for relief not specifically addressed herein, including Claimants' request for punitive damages, is denied.
